Day 1

Your overnight flight should arrive the following morning in Cape Town. A Conquer Cape Town vehicle and representatives will be waiting in arrivals, ready to take the team to Neighbourgood, Newlands.

After checking in and getting to know your surroundings, there's a chance to get the gum shields in and run through a late afternoon training session at a nearby hockey facility.

The evening will come to a close with a restaurant booking nearby to Neighbourgood at The Forresters Arms.

- Airport transfer.
- Neighbourgood Hotel.
- Training facilities.
- Restaurant booking.

February 15 - Day 2

Day 2

After breakfast at the hotel, transport and a Conquer Cape Town representative will be on hand to take the team to their prearranged fixture against a local opposition. The pitch, facilities and officials will be organised in advance.

Once the result has been settled and hands shook, we'll head for the coast. Spending the remainder of the afternoon at the beach, there'll be plenty of time to play some team games, volleyball or just relax.

We'll bring the curtain down on day 2 with a sunset dinner spot along the famous street of Camps Bay (if requested)

- Breakfast.
- Fixture against local opposition. Facilities and officials included.
- Clifton/Camps Bay beach.
- Camps Bay restaurant booking (if requested)

February 16 - Day 3

Day 3

From Newlands, the highlights of Cape Town trip will begin where we'll spend the day hitting the 'must sees' of Cape Town- first stop; Table Mountain!

Once you've conquered Africa's most famous landmark and taken in the breathtaking panoramic views from over 1000 metres above Cape Town, we'll hug the coast en route to Hout Bay, where the Seal Island boat trip awaits.

Whilst channeling your inner Lewis Hamilton, we'll head along the famous Chapmans Peak route, slaloming through the mountains with each turn as picturesque as the last. Passing through Noordhoek village for refreshments, before continuing to The Cape of Good Hope- where crashing waves and infinite coastline will leave your eyes spoilt for choice.

After lunch in Simons Town, it's time to meet some rather snazzily dressed birds; the penguins of Boulders Beach, where you'll also have time to go for a swim and sunbathe on the sand.

After ticking off the Cape Town bucket list, the remainder of the evening will be free to do as you please.

- Breakfast.
- Table Mountain.
- Seal Island.
- Chapmans Peak.
- Noordhoek Village.
